CEDAW - «A bill of rights for women»

CEDAW stands for “Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination against Women” from 1979.

- 188 nations have ratified it.
- The nations have to write gender equality into their legislation and delete discriminating decisions. They are obliged to protect women against discrimination, and ensure civil, social, economic, cultural and political rights.
- All governments have to establish institutions to follow up and measure the progress in the antidiscrimination efforts and report to the CEDAW committee every 4th year.

Example of Zonta's Advocacy work: «Economic Security, Violence against Women and the Workplace»

Event in UN: Agreement on violence against women has consequences for workplaces and women's life. We need guidelines in private sector for safe work places developed through social dialogues, it was said.

Example of Zonta's Service Project: "Let us Learn Madagascar"

- About 90 percent of Madagascar's population lives on less than US$2 per day, leaving children particularly vulnerable.
- More than a quarter of Madagascar's children are excluded from formal education, and one out of three girls will become pregnant before the age of 18. Junior secondary school enrollment fees are prohibitively expensive for families, forcing parents to select one child to continue their education, often leaving girls behind.
- Zonta International has committed US$1,000,000 to UNICEF USA to create opportunities for vulnerable and excluded girls to realize their rights to an education in a secure and protective environment.
